

February 2010

Walcot House launches new website

Walcot House, known in the curtain making trade for their exclusive, contemporary curtain poles, finials and unusual hanging systems, has unveiled their new look website, www.walcothouse.com.

Full of lots of useful information about their ever growing range, it is aimed at trade customers, but the consumer can also browse the product range and easily locate their nearest stockists.

Free samples of poles and colour swatches can be ordered online, and trade customers can apply for a trade account or request a quotation.

Visit the website at www.walcothouse.com.

If you would like to receive a catalogue of the Walcot House range of curtain poles, finials, hold backs and hanging systems, please call 01993 832940 or email info@walcothouse.com.

- ENDS -

For further press information please contact: Amanda King, Walcot House Ltd, tel: 01993 832940, fax: 01993 832950,
email: amanda.king@walcothouse.com

Note: Digital images available. Please contact us.

